

RIGHT WING FIEND

I carry on so obnoxiously prodigal son or a right wing fiend? pontificate with a chip on my shoulder argue with Dad over the liberal order well, they say young conservatives have no hearts I say old liberals have no heads would you rather be a liberal without a head?

I can help you on that point with my foot-long machete angry young man, angry young man, angry young man, angry young man

gotta come clean
I'm a right wing fiend
I rock this scene with my fist pumping can't stop saying it

I awakened at age fifteen to left wing plots and conspiracies government taxes my paper route money and gives it out to the homeless and junkies well, they say that I'm too young to know who I am I'm old enough for an NRA card I'm packin' heat for the militia man war soon I'll come knockin' and ask who you are my head is itching with free market schemes I'd give a hippie a case of the fleas if you wanna live a communist life, be my guest you'll be scrubbing my boots for the rest [of your life] well, they say young conservatives have no hearts... (etc.) conspiracy, conspiracy, conspiracy, conspiracy

hail to the chief
I'm a right wing fiend
the chicks all scream when I do strip tease hung like the devil a right wing fiend
